Any such member shall abstain from voting on resolutions of the Committee in relation to which such interest exists and from participating in the discussions concerning such resolutions and if so requested by the Board shall resign from the Committee.

3. DUTIES

- 3.2 The Committee shall:
- 3.2.1 Have delegated responsibility to determine the framework or policy for the remuneration and the setting of the remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the executive directors, the Company Secretary, the executive team members and such other members of the executive management as it is designated to consider, in accordance with the Principles and Provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code (the "Code");

- a. simplicity, to avoid complexity where possible;

- b. clarity, to ensure that remuneration arrangements are transparent and promote effective engagement with shareholders and the workforce;
 - c. the risk appetite of the business, behavioural risk from targeted incentive plans and the reputational risk from excessive rewards;
 - d. the predictability of the range of possible remuneration outcomes and values;
 - e. proportionality, to clearly link the individual rewards with the delivery of strategy and long-term performance; and
 - f. alignment to culture, to ensure incentive schemes drive behaviours consistent with the Company purpose, values and strategy;

- a. set relevant and stretching performance targets across all performance measures relating to annual bonus and LTIP awards so as to ensure that each participant is provided with appropriate incentives consistent with the business's remuneration policy and to link reward to corporate and individual performance;
 - b. approve all awards to executive directors and the executive team, including consideration of the quantum, vesting schedules, deferral and holding requirements and a formal policy for post-employment shareholding requirements encompassing both unvested and vested shares;
 - c. determine with appropriate objective third parties, whether such performance targets have been satisfied;
 - d. oversee and approve any amendments to the incentive plans prior to obtaining any necessary shareholder approval; and
 - e. exercise any discretion where appropriate to adjust the formula driven outturn to ensure that any incentive plan payments are appropriate in light of, for instance, broader business performance, shareholder experience or other employees' rewards.

- 3.2.8 Determine the policy for pension arrangements for each executive director and the executive team;
- 3.2.9 Ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are appropriate for the individual, and the Business, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- 3.2.10 Ensure that engagement with the workforce takes place to explain how executive remuneration aligns with the wider Company pay policy, with consideration being given to the views expressed;

The Committee shall have full authority to commission any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations. The remuneration consultants' name and any other connection with the Business will be disclosed in the remuneration report to shareholders; and
